

Keynote Speaker
TOBY
LEVY

The Teaneck Holocaust
Commemoration Committee
& The Jewish Community
Council of Greater Teaneck

- present -

THE 2019 HOLOCAUST COMMEMORATION

On the 80th Anniversary of the Shoa

Wednesday • May 1, 2019 • 7:30pm

Toby Levy was born in Chodorow, Poland in 1933. Toby and her family were saved by righteous gentiles who hid them during the Nazi occupation. They were among the few survivors of the thousands of Jews who lived in the Chodorow area.

Special Musical Performance of Hebrew and Yiddish songs
by Jonathan Rimberg and Stephanie Kurtzman.

Tziporei Shalom,
Congregation Beth Shalom's Children's
Choir, will perform.

Pre-Event Dessert/Musical Reception for Survivors and their Families
6:00pm: Media Room, Teaneck High School – more details on back

Teaneck High School Auditorium, Cranford Place (off Queen Anne Road)
The Entire Community is Invited. FREE Admission.
Handicapped Accessible – rear door

www.TeaneckYomhashoa.org

HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS & FAMILIES

Please join us for a pre-event Dessert & Musical Reception
Reception begins at 6:00 pm.

Meet and mingle with other survivor families and enjoy Yiddish and Hebrew Songs performed by Yitzy Glicksman

•••

Reception Location: Media Room of Teaneck High School
RSVP to Annette Prager 201-638-5621 - leave your name, phone number and number of attendees.

Holocaust Inspired Art Display at our Local Libraries

Original artwork from students at The Frisch school using the Shema prayer as a springboard for their Holocaust inspired artwork.

•••

When? The month of May at Teaneck Public Library
The month of June at Bergenfield Public Library

Update on Northern New Jersey Holocaust Memorial & Education Center

•••

The Holocaust Memorial committee continues to make progress on creating a Memorial and Holocaust Education Center where community members can dedicate and pay tribute to descendants killed during the Shoah. In conjunction with the Teaneck Public library, a virtual reality Holocaust experience is planned along with lectures, films and education projects. For more information and for dedication opportunities, visit www.njholocaustmemorial.org.

Tax deductible donations to the Teaneck Holocaust Commemoration Committee can be made to: www.teaneckyomhashoa.org or by mailing a check to Sharon Penkower Kaplan, 534 S. Forest Drive, Teaneck, NJ 07666
Checks should be payable to: Jewish Community Council of Greater Teaneck. Ref: Yom Hashoa